Jesus Christ, light of the world, bearer of eternal dawn, we know well the darkness you have come to banish. Groping in the confusion of a starless night, we confess our isolation, aimlessness and fear of death. We confess the hostility we permit and the suffering we inflict. We confess our known and unknown prejudices and our failures to practice mercy. We acknowledge our desperate need of you. By your presence, dawn on our darkened day. By your steadfast love, draw us into the light of your new way.

OFFERTORY ANTHEM Wexford Carol

Irish carol

Good people all, this Christmas time, Consider well and bear in mind What our good God for us has done, In sending His beloved Son. With Mary holy we should pray To God with love this Christmas Day; In Bethlehem upon the morn There was a blest Messiah born.

The night before that happy tide The noble virgin and her guide Were long time seeking up and down To find a lodging in the town. But mark how all things came to pass: From every door repelled, alas! As long foretold, their refuge all Was but a humble oxen stall.

Near Bethlehem did shepherds keep Their flocks of lambs and feeding sheep; To whom God's angels did appear Which put the shepherds in great fear. "Prepare and go," the angels said, "To Bethlehem, be not afraid; For there you'll find, this happy morn, A princely Babe, sweet Jesus born."

With thankful heart and joyful mind, The shepherds went the babe to find, And as God's angel has foretold, They did our Savior Christ behold. Within a manger He was laid, And by His side the virgin maid Attending on the Lord of Life, Who came on earth to end all strife.

There were three wise men from afar Directed by a glorious star, And on they wandered night and day Until they came where Jesus lay, And when they came unto that place Where our beloved Messiah was, They humbly cast them at his feet, With gifts of gold and incense sweet.

DATING BACK to the 12th century, "Wexford Carol" is one of the oldest Irish carols and is thought to have originated in the area of County Wexford, Ireland; the words may have come from England. It is also known as "The Enniscorthy Carol," as it was originally collected by Dr. Grattan Flood in Enniscorthy, a town in Ireland's County Wexford. The lyrics, which are in English, date back to the 12th century. The lyrics were added to the tune much later, and it is not believed that the lyrics were originally in the Irish language.
