

FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

THE CHURCH GATHERS ...

When the prelude begins let us quietly prepare for the Worship of God.

PRELUDE Wie schön leuchtet der Morgenstern Johann Christoph Bach
How Brightly Shines the Morning Star

OPPORTUNITIES AND CONCERNS OF THE CONGREGATION

INTROIT (11:00) He Whom Joyous Shepherds Praised Gerald Near
He whom joyous shepherds praised, When the angel's song was raised Bidding them be not amazed, Heav'n's all-glorious King is born.

He whom sages, westward faring, Myrrh and gold and incense bearing, Worshipped bowing low before him Reigns as King this happy morn.

Now rejoice with Jesus' mother; Praise her newborn Son, our brother; Angels vie with one another Praising him beyond the sky.

Sing to Christ, the King who reigneth, Yet of Mary manhood gaineth, Born our God; let us adore him: Glory be to God on high.

AFFIRMATION OF FAITH (Unison)

adapted from Philippians 2:5-11

Let the same mind be in you that was in Christ Jesus, who, though he was in the form of God, did not regard equality with God as something to be exploited, but emptied himself, taking the form of a servant, being born in human likeness. And being found in human form, he humbled himself and became obedient to the point of death - even death on a cross. Therefore God also highly exalted him and gave him the name that is above every name, so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bend, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE Prayer for Today

Margaret R. Tucker

God in heaven, I make my prayer for all the people everywhere Who live in fear or pain or doubt; Whose homes are gone, and hopes run out.

God in heaven, I make my prayer for all the children everywhere Who live in terrible, warring places; Who live with hunger and strange, sad faces.

God in heaven, I make my prayer for all good people everywhere Who live in comfort, love, and peace And pray sincerely for strife to cease; But who do not always hear the call Of those who live with nothing at all.

God in heaven, hear my prayer! Help all people everywhere To come closer together in plenty and need, And to make our world your home, indeed.

HUGO DISTLER, the German-born composer and organist living in the first half of this past century, was an important voice in church music. Born in Nuremberg in 1908, he attended Leipzig Conservatory and became organist at St. Jacobi in Lübeck in 1931. He also taught at the School for Church Music in Spandau, and became a professor of church music in Stuttgart in 1940. His choral work is polyphonic and frequently melismatic, often based on the pentatonic scale. This morning’s anthem takes a familiar hymn melody and presents it in a fresh, rhythmically-altered form.

In addition, each confirmand and mentor will work together on the “Journey Through the Bible,” which will take them from Genesis to Revelation with a study of scripture and a series of questions to be answered. Adult Sunday School Teaching Opportunity

If you have been searching for an opportunity to teach adult Sunday school but only on a very limited basis, here is your opportunity. Starting on February 21 we will need teachers for the Lenten series, which runs through March 28. Here is an abbreviated description of the book we will be studying:

Christianity for the Rest of Us by Diana Butler Bass

Part I – What Happened to the Neighborhood Church?

Part II – Ten Signposts of Renewal

Part III – From Tourists to Pilgrims

We will devote two Sundays to each of the three parts of the book. If you are interested in teaching one or more of the six Sundays, please contact Tim Crais at timcrais@yahoo.com or call him at 357-0365. He will provide you with a book and suggested lesson plans. This is an opportunity for you to share your teaching gifts with the church.

“Having gifts that differ according to the grace given to us, let us use them: if prophecy, in proportion to our faith; if service, in our serving; he who teaches, in his teaching”

–Romans 12:6-7
